Mr. Clarence Maynard Johnson, Jr.

Mr. Clarence Maynard Johnson, Jr., 78, died peacefully at his home Sunday, September 28, 2014.

There will be a memorial service at 11 a.m. on Thursday, October 2, 2014, in the Chapel of Leavitt Funeral Home with Rev. Randy Swaringen officiating. The family will greet friends following the service at the funeral home and other times at the home.

There will also be a memorial service at a later date in Brantingham, NY.

Maynard was born December 6, 1935, in Orlando, Florida, the only son of the late Clarence Maynard and Margaret Elizabeth Gutheintz Johnson. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Grace Belk Johnson.

Following high school, he graduated in 1954 from Paul Smith University with an Associate's Degree in Forestry and later in 1956 from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor's Degree in Forestry. He worked for a brief period with International Paper Company in South Carolina, and it was during that time that he was introduced to Anson County and the need for forestry management.

In 1959 he began his own business, C. Maynard Johnson Consulting Forester, the first forest consulting company in Anson County. Maynard and his son operated a well-respected and reputable business until Maynard's retirement in 2012. Young men, interested in a career in forestry, revered Maynard and his knowledge and passion of forestry.

Obituaries

A modest man, he never wanted his college diplomas or awards hung in public places, as his interest was serving his clients to the best of his ability. However, one of his most significant accomplishments was that of being instrumental in the establishment of the Hugh Hammond Bennett Soil Conservation Service in Anson County.

For those who knew Maynard best he will be remembered for his love of his family camp in Brantingham, NY, where he enjoyed fishing, especially trout fishing, and quail hunting. His fondness for hunting really just involved watching the hunting dogs work. He was a member of both Quail and Trout Unlimited and the Society of American Foresters. Forestry was his passion, he lived and breathed it! He also enjoyed collecting classic automobiles, and enjoyed the relationships he shared with both his bird dogs and house dogs.

Surviving are his wife, Stacia of the home; his sons, Eddie Johnson of Albemarle and Mark Johnson of Greer, SC; and his stepchildren, Terri (Charles) Gomm of the Burnsville Community, Samantha Arrington of Cloud Lake, WI and Roy (Tracy) Barnes of Cedar Point, NC.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Anson County Animal Shelter, 101 S. Greene St., Wadesboro, NC 28170 or to the charity of the donor's choice.

The arrangements are in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at leavittfuneralhomewadesboro.com.
