Deep Creek Baptist Church Health Fair is Saturday

Deep Creek Baptist Church will sponsor a Health Fair this Saturday, October 22, from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Free services such as blood pressure checks and flu immunizations will be offered. Pneumonia and Prevnar vaccinations will be offered if you have not had one in the last five years. Other offerings include tetanus (TD or TDAP) and shingles injections. Participants will need to bring Medicare or other insurance cards.

A Red Cross Blood Drive is scheduled from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at this event. Identification will need to be provided. If you are between the ages of 17 and 100 years old you may give blood, but you must weight at least 110 pounds. A mini physical will be given prior to donation that will include blood pressure, temperature and pulse checks. Sugar and cholesterol tests will be offered and a nutritionist or nurse will discuss your results with you.

Mammogram appointments can be made during the fair and scheduled at a local hospital. Experts will be available to give information on organ and bone marrow donations as well.

Directions to Deep Creek Baptist Church: Take Highway 109 South from Wadesboro. Deep Creek Road is on the left. After turning left travel approximately one mile, and you will see West Deep Creek Church on your left. The next road on your left is Beck Road. Turn left onto Beck Road, you will see Deep Creek Baptist Church.

For information call Sandra Ketchie at 704-694-6865.

Wadesboro Interchurch Council Crop Walk is Sunday

The Annual Crop Walk will take place this coming Sunday, October 23 in Anson County. This event is sponsored by the Wadesboro Interchurch Council. Church World Services (CWS) has worked for nearly seven decades with one goal - building enough food for all. Crop Walk helps to fight hunger and poverty as well as promote peace and justice.

CWS helps to build safe schools, access clean water, develop sustainable energy solutions, and rebuild villages after earthquakes. One fourth of all the money raised will go to local charities in Anson County.

The Crop Walk is a great opportunity for Girl Scout and Boy Scout troops, Sunday School classes, local businesses and others to give back. Anyone can walk! Pick up fund packets at Calvary Episcopal Church, First Presbyterian Church, First Methodist Church, First Baptist Church or Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Please call ahead for office hours.

The Crop Walk registration will begin at 2 p.m. on Sunday at Calvary Episcopal Church. The Walk will begin at Calvary, proceed down Morven Road to Wadesboro Park, then return to Calvary for refreshments. Calvary Episcopal Church is located at 308 East Wade Street in Wadesboro.

Brown Creek Soil & Water Conservation District Meeting

The Brown Creek Soil & Water Conservation District monthly board meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 25 at 10:00 a.m. at the BCSWCD office, located at 1758 Morven Road in Wadesboro. For more information call 704-694-3516.

Wadesboro Lions Club Broom Sale is November 5

On Saturday, November 5 the Wadesboro Lions Club will have a broom sale at Walmart, from 9 a.m to 5 p.m. The club usually has its main broom sale fund-raiser at Wadesboro's People Fest, but because the event was cancelled this year they are seeking other ways of generating necessary funds to assist the blind and visually impaired (VIPs) of Wadesboro and Anson County.

When funds are available, the Wadesboro Lions Club provides eye exam and glasses to numerous people throughout the year. They also send VIPs to Camp Dogwood, a camp on Lake Norman (over 800 people go each summer) and to a special VIP Fishing Tournament for the blind where 500 VIPs enjoy fishing, meeting other blind and visually impaired people, and learning daily living skills.

The Wadesboro Lions Club meets at Papa Joes Restaurant the second and fourth Friday of each month at 6:30 p.m. For more information or to purchase a broom please call Lion Jim Chandler at 910-571-1448.
