Mr. Darrell
Lee Chewning

On Monday, October 15, 2018, with true Chewning spirit and determination, Mr. Darrell Lee Chewning insisted on driving himself and his wife Susan to the hospital, and while driving he suffered a heart attack and was called home to be with the Lord. He was a loving and devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. Many lives have been touched by this gentle giant's kindness and generosity.

A service to celebrate the life of Darrell Lee Chewning was held on Friday, October 19, 2018, at Deep Creek Baptist Church with Rev. Paul Saleeby, Pastor of Benton Heights Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment followed in Anson Memorial Park.

Darrell was born June 6, 1952, in Anson County, one of five children born to the late Eddie Lee Chewning and Mary Virginia Moore Chewning. He was the only boy with four sisters. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister Beverly Chewning Hinson and his brother-in-law Leon Dalton.

He grew up knowing the importance of a big family. The Chewnings believed in instilling a good work ethic in their children. Farming, gardening and hard work was often the center of their family life. The importance of time spent with family and friends has been a family value that has remained, even after the death of Darrell's parents. To this day the family still gathers in his home to make time for these treasured moments together.

Darrell was a 1970 graduate of Bowman High School, and was a long-time and dedicated employee of Huntley Oil and Gas in Wadesboro.

Surviving are the love of his life and wife of 48 years, Susan Baker Chewning; his children, Tiffany Medford (Tradd) of Indian Trail and Lee Chewning (Amy) of Winston-Salem; his grandchildren who lovingly called him Papa, Caleb Chewning, Jillian Chewning and Beau Medford; his sisters, Barbara Dalton of Asheville, Julie Johnson (David) and Kathy Thompson (Butch), all of Wadesboro, and their families; his Aunt Sadie Moore Waddell of Wadesboro; his sisters-in-law, Louise Brock (Calvin) and Jane Hinson (Kerry), all of Cheraw and Mary Ann Short (James) of Pink Hill.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Deep Creek Baptist Church, Building Fund, 1280 Beck Rd., Wadesboro, NC 28170.

The arrangements were in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.

Mr. David
Cleveland Parker

Mr. David Cleveland Parker, 100, died Sunday, October 21, 2018, at the North Carolina State Veterans Home in Kinston, NC.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 25, 2018, at First Presbyterian Church, Wadesboro with Mr. Ken Goins, CLP, officiating. Entombment will follow in Anson Memorial Park Mausoleum.

The family will greet friends one hour prior to the service in the church fellowship hall.

David was born June 30, 1918, in Pitt County, NC, a son of the late Jesse Cleveland Parker and Gladys Thompson Parker. He graduated high school in Fountain, NC and North Carolina State University with a degree in Animal Husbandry. He was a veteran of the United States Navy, having served during World War II.

David owned and operated Parker's Farm and Home Supply in Wadesboro and Anson Memorial Park.

Prior to declining health, he was an active member of First Presbyterian Church, Wadesboro where he served in several capacities including, Elder, Deacon and Usher. He was also a longtime member of the Wadesboro Civitan Club.

Surviving are his son and daughter-in-law, Wayne and Brownie Parker of Raleigh; his grandchildren, Ashley Murphy and husband Dan of New Bern, Jason Parker and wife Cynthia of Lewisville and Grant Parker of Pinehurst; his great-grandchildren, Danny, Parker and Rheagan Murphy and Ashlyn and Gabriel Parker; and his brother Alan Parker of Salisbury.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Mary Bullock Parker and seven brothers and sisters.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to First Presbyterian Church, P.O. Box 351, Wadesboro, NC 28170.

The arrangements are in care of Leavitt Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.leavittfh.com.

Mrs. Celeste
Steagall Wall

Mrs. Celeste Steagall Wall, 93, died Sunday, October 21, 2018, at Carolinas HealthCare System Anson in Wadesboro.

There will be a service to celebrate her life at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, October 24, 2018, at Morven Presbyterian Church with Mr. Ken Goins, CLP officiating. The family will greet friends following the service in the church fellowship hall. The inurnment will be private in Morven Cemetery.

Celeste was born March 24, 1925, in Anson County, a daughter of the late William Ernest Steagall and Myrtle Celeste Holt Steagall. At the age of 16 she graduated from Morven High School, Class of 1941, and earned a Bachelor's of Arts in Business from Women's College in Greensboro (UNCG).

She was a lifelong and faithful member of Morven Presbyterian Church, and helped sustain the church's ministries as long as her health allowed. Her family has been members of the church for generations.

A well-noted crafts enthusiast, she was the owner and operator of Back Porch Crafts in Morven. She had craft classes and had many students in and around Anson County. She enjoyed needle point, knitting, making baby blankets, and often shared handmade Christmas gifts with her family. An excellent homemaker and cook, her family and friends will remember her for making homemade bread, pound cakes and pear honey.

Celeste lived her faith and always made time every morning for Bible reading and devotion. A part of her gift in sharing her faith was her love of making Chrismons, ornaments made from Christian symbols that can tell others the story of Christ. Her Chrismons have blessed many homes of family and friends for many years.

A loving and devoted mother and grandmother, she is survived by her children, Mary Buckingham and James E. Wall, Jr., both of Morven, Margaret Goins of Wadesboro and Inez Vaughn of New London; her grandchildren, Wheeler Buckingham (Jennifer) of Polkton, Celeste Dutton (Woodie) of Morven, Stephen Vaughn (Moir) of Matthews, Caroline Goins and Elizabeth

CFNC Financial Aid Workshop

The workshop for high school seniors and their parents presented by the College Foundation of North Carolina (CFNC) has been rescheduled for Wednesday, November 14 at 6:30 p.m. in the Media Center at Anson High School. A CFNC representative will present information about applying for financial aid using the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Colleges and universities use this information to determine financial aid packages for students. This year, the FAFSA application for the 2019-2020 school year became available on October 1. Parents will learn more about student and parent loans, work study and how to interpret financial aid award letters received from schools once their student is accepted. Seniors and their parents from Anson High School, Anson Early College, and Anson Academy are strongly encouraged to attend.
