Bill's Shell Service

Some years back, this "computer stuff" came along. downtown Wadesboro had not only a number of grocery stores, but also several service stations. Bill Smith operated this station on the corner of South Rutherford and West Morgan Streets, at the present location of Smith's Cleaners.

This was a time when you could fill up with a $5 bill (or less) - instead of a $50 bill!! I did this sign on March 29, 1963 - all by hand, before

There are so many changes now in this area - next door was Lowe's Printing, across the street were several businesses, which are "not anymore" - plus there are no downtown grocery stores. Fortunately there is still a service station downtown, East Wade Gulf run by Alan Jackson. Bill ran his service station a number of years. He also worked with Huntley Buick for 23 years. He is now deceased.
