

Register as an Organ, Eye and Tissue Donor

Join LifeShare Of The Carolinas in celebrating National Donor Sabbath this November 15-17, a time for people of all faiths to honor those who have given the lifesaving gift of organ, eye, and tissue donation. Every year during this special time, donation and transplant organizations work closely with communities of faith to bring the lifesaving message of donation to congregations across the country.

Faith plays a significant role in the decision to register as a donor. All major religions support organ, eye, and tissue donation. They believe it to be a final act of kindness and generosity. People of all faiths and denominations are encouraged to register as donors by visiting their local DMV office or signing-up online at www.donatelifenc.org.

"While religions differ in many ways, among the common points they share are positive, inspiring messages that provide hope," said Gary Burris, LifeShare's Chief Operating Officer. "By registering to be an organ, eye, and tissue donor, individuals can provide hope to the more than 120,000 men, women and children across the United States currently awaiting organ transplants and the hundreds of thousands more in need of cornea and tissue transplants."

LifeShare is providing Bible markers, speakers and other materials for congregations across the southwestern part of North Carolina that will participate in the Donor Sabbath this year. It's not too late for area congregations to participate.

Make a statement of hope and faith today and register to be an organ, eye, and tissue donor. For more information, to order materials for a Donor Sabbath observance or to register to be a donor, please visit LifeShare's web site at www.lifesharecarolinas.org.

LifeShare is the federally designated organ procurement organization that serves southwestern North Carolina as the link between people who need transplants and the deceased donors who make those transplants possible. The mission of the organization is improving lives through organ, eye, and tissue donation.

Farmers and Ranchers Urged to Vote in Committee Elections

The 2013 Farm Service Agency County Committee Elections began on Nov. 4, when ballots were mailed to eligible voters. The deadline to return the ballots to local FSA offices is Dec. 2, 2013.

County committee members are an important component of the operations of FSA and provide a link between the agricultural community and USDA. Farmers and ranchers elected to county committees help deliver FSA programs at the local level, applying their knowledge and judgment to make decisions on commodity price support programs; conservation programs; incentive indemnity and disaster programs for some commodities; emergency programs and eligibility. FSA committees operate within official regulations designed to carry out federal laws.

To be an eligible voter, farmers and ranchers must participate or cooperate in an FSA program. A person who is not of legal voting age, but supervises and conducts the farming operations of an entire farm may also be eligible to vote.

Eligible voters in local administrative area LAA-2 (Peachland, Polkton, Wadesboro & Lilesville) who do not receive ballots in the coming week can obtain ballots from their local USDA Service Center. Dec. 2, 2013, is the last day for voters to submit ballots in person to local USDA Service Centers. Ballots returned by mail must also be postmarked no later than Dec. 2. Newly elected committee members and their alternates will take office Jan. 1, 2014.

The candidates in this year's election are: Dale McRae is nominated in LAA 2, Anson County, to serve as a committee member. McRae resides at 2874 Pinkston River Road and has produced Corn, Wheat, Soybeans & Hogs for 25 years. He is an active member of Farm Service Agency County Committee and serves as Chairman.

More information on county committees, such as the new 2013 fact sheet and brochures, can be found on the FSA website at www.fsa.usda.gov/elections or at a local USDA Service Center.
