Stay Safe This Holiday Season

With the holiday season upon us, many people travel to loved ones, decorate their homes and places of work, and cook a family feast! As you prepare for any upcoming events, be sure you know what to do to stay safe.

When traveling by car, if you're heading somewhere cold, prepare your car for winter weather and pack an emergency supply kit that includes essentials like jumper cables, a car cell phone charger, a blanket, and a map.

Cooking a big meal? Prevent home fires and keep an eye on what you fry! Many cooking fires start when frying food. Stay in your kitchen and be aware of what's going on. If you leave the kitchen, turn off the stove.

When decorating for the holiday, keep all candles 12 inches away from things that can burn. Three of every five home candle fires occurred when some form of combustible material was left or came too close to the candle. Consider using battery-operated flameless candles.

Other tips for holiday and travel safety include, staying off the road during and after inclement weather. Sign up for alerts and warnings for your travel destinations. Turn off holiday lights at night or when you leave the house. When you shop online for holiday gifts, ensure your personal information is secure. Establish and maintain communications with your family while away.
