Lockhart Taylor Named Assistant Secretary of the NC Division of Employment Security

North Carolina Commerce Secretary Anthony M. Copeland has appointed Lockhart Taylor the department's Assistant Secretary of the Division of Employment Security. Taylor has served as Interim Assistant Secretary since September 1, 2017.

"Lockhart Taylor has many years of experience in the state's unemployment insurance and workforce systems, and his expertise is invaluable for the Division and for the citizens of North Carolina," said Secretary Copeland. "I am confident that Lockhart will continue leading the Division of Employment Security with success."

Taylor will guide the department's administration of unemployment insurance for the state.

Taylor has been employed with the Division of Employment Security, previously the Employment Security Commission, for 24 years. He worked for the Office of Governmental Relations for 20 years before he was named Chief Deputy in April 2017.

Taylor is a native of Wadesboro. He studied history at Appalachian State University.

His appointment was effective on Monday, November 13.

The Wadesboro Town Hall will be closed on Monday and Tuesday, December 25 and 26 to celebrate the Christmas holiday. The normal Monday and Tuesday garbage collection routes will be picked up on Wednesday, December 27. The normal Wednesday and Thursday garbage collection routes will be picked up on Thursday, December 28.

The Wadesboro Town Hall will be closed on Monday, January 1, 2018, to celebrate the New Year Holiday. Monday and Tuesday's normal garbage collection routes will be picked up on Tuesday, January 2. The normal route collection will resume on Wednesday, January 3.

The Town of Wadesboro appreciates your consideration in allowing town employees time with their families during this holiday season. As always, you will still be able to leave your utility bill payments in the night deposit box at Town Hall. If you have an emergency, please call Dispatch at 704-694-2167.

Habitat for Humanity Announces New Management Team

The Union-Anson County Habitat for Humanity which has a business called ReStore in Wadesboro has announced its new manager, Beverly Livingston, and Assistant Manager, John Thomas. Together with their volunteers, they have been hard at work reorganizing and reprecip to bring to Anson an even better store in which to shop.

The team would also like to remind everyone that donations, which are tax deductible, are gratefully accepted, and can be dropped off at the store or scheduled to be picked up. Habitat is a wonderful charity to contribute those unwanted items to, as the money raised at the store goes toward the building and repairing of qualifying homes. Several Anson County homes have either been built or repaired since the store's opening two years ago.

Volunteers are also welcomed, so anyone who has spare time to assist in a worthy cause is encouraged to come by to discuss this enriching opportunity. For more information about volunteering or anything concerning Habitat please call 704-465-2030.

The Anson Singers to Present Handel's Messiah

The Anson Singers will be kicking off this Christmas season with the glorious music of George Frideric Handel's most well-known choral work, The Messiah. The choir will be featuring local soloists and will be accompanied by the Piedmont Triad String Quintet from Greensboro, NC.

The concert will be on Sunday, December 3 at 3:00 p.m. at First Methodist Church, located at 118 East Morgan Street in Wadesboro. Please join us for this free concert!

The Anson Singers was founded in 2011, and is a non-profit community choral organization based in Wadesboro, directed by Emily Privette. The group is comprised of members from Anson and surrounding counties and is open to all who love to sing and create beautiful music. "Together, through music, we are unified as one voice, and that is one of the greatest treasures of singing!"
