Chop Shop Discovered, Suspect Don Briningstool Still at Large

Don Briningstool

On Tuesday, November 19 detectives with the Anson County Sheriff's Office conducted a welfare check at a residence located at 102 Whiteman Church Road in the Burnsville Community following numerous complaints from residents in the area. While conducting the welfare check detectives located what appeared to be a chop shop. A chop shop is a place where stolen vehicles are dismantled so that the parts can be sold or used to repair other stolen vehicles. Detectives obtained consent from occupants of the property to conduct a search, and evidence was located to include the body and parts of a 2019 Dodge Challenger that was reported stolen from the Raleigh area. Detectives along with investigators from the North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles (NCDMV) License and Theft Bureau identified and charged a suspect, Don Briningstool. As of press time Briningstool is still at large. Anyone with information on Briningstool's whereabouts are asked to please contact the Anson County Sheriff's Office at 704-694-4188 or the Crime Stoppers Hotline at 704-695-3111. Anson County Sheriff Landric Reid said, "I would like to thank the citizens of Anson County for their concern for the community and reporting the suspicious activity. I encourage all citizens to report any criminal or suspicious activity."

Shooting Investigation Leads to Narcotics and Gun Seizures

Donald Davis Burr II and Jessica Hair arrested

On Saturday, November 2 the Anson County Sheriff's Office was notified of a shooting that had occurred on the southern side of Wadesboro. While conducting an investigation into the shooting detectives determined that the incident had not occurred where previously reported, but had occurred at 902 Pecan Street in Wadesboro. Detectives obtained a search warrant for the residence, and that led to the seizure of multiple firearms and approximately nine ounces of methamphetamine.

Food Lion Rated Most Popular Grocery Store in NC

Food Lion was rated the most popular grocery store in North Carolina, according to a new survey by news site 24/7 Wall St. (247wallst.com) To rank grocery stores in each state, the news site used a combination of data from Yelp and Google Trends. There are nearly 500 Food Lion stores in towns and cities across North Carolina, including the one located in Wadesboro.

There are over 36,000 grocery stores in the United States. While some are smaller, independent stores or specialty outlets that focus on groceries from a certain area, Americans tend to buy the bulk of their food at large regional or national chains. Regional chains like Hy-Vee, Albertsons, or Publix may be a staple in some parts of the country, but they are completely unknown in others.

To determine the most popular grocery store in every state, 24/7 Wall St. ranked grocery stores using a combination of data from business directory website Yelp and Google Trends. From Yelp, they determined the five grocery stores with the most reviews in each state and compared their Google search frequency from Nov. 12, 2018 to Nov. 12, 2019 using Google Trends. The grocery store with the highest search frequency on Google Trends in a given state was listed as the most popular grocery store in that state.

Shoppers want to go to a grocery store they trust, a store that offers high-quality products like meat, produce, and more at a fair price. Grocery stores can easily lose business if they stock substandard products. These can ruin a dinner or, worse, sicken consumers who eat contaminated products.

Of course, grocery stores usually do provide quality food for their customers, but perhaps their shoppers simply don't know how to identify produce at its peak. From avocados to zucchini, each fruit and vegetable has telltale signs that shoppers should look for.

Food Lion is based in Salisbury, NC. They operate 1,029 supermarkets in 10 states of the Mid-Atlantic and Southeastern United States under the Food Lion banner. With about 63,000 employees, Food Lion, LLC. is currently owned by Ahold Delhaize after it was acquired by the Delhaize Group in 1974.

On December 11, 1957, Ralph Ketner, Brown Ketner and Wilson Smith co-founded the Food Town (later Food Lion) grocery store chain in Salisbury. Ketner served as President (later CEO, Chairman and Chairman Emeritus).

National Wreaths Across America Day

Anson Memorial Park will join the more than 1,600 participating locations across the country to Remember, Honor and Teach on Saturday, December 14. Deadline to sponsor wreaths is November 30.

National nonprofit Wreaths Across America (WAA) is pleased that Leavitt Funeral Home and Anson Memorial Park in Wadesboro will be joining in the effort to support the mission to Remember, Honor, Teach, as an official location for 2019. This is the first year that the cemetery will participate in this national event.

The ceremony will take place at Anson Memorial Park on Saturday, December 14 at 12 noon. The deadline to sponsor wreaths is November 30, as orders must be in by Dec. 2. This also serving as a fundraising event for Anson Community Hospice as $5 from every wreath sponsored will be donated to Anson Community Hospice.

Wreaths Across America started as a simple gesture of thanks that has grown into a national movement of dedicated volunteers and communities coming together to not only remember the nation's fallen and honor their service, but to teach the next generation about the sacrifices made for us to live freely. This year, there will be more than 1,600 participating locations placing wreaths on National Wreaths Across America Day - Saturday, December 14, 2019 - with more than two million volunteers coming together.

The goal for Anson Memorial Park is to raise enough funds to place 300 veterans' wreaths on the headstones of all the local heroes laid to rest there, to ensure that the individuals who served to protect the freedoms of our country never be forgotten and to bring the community together in patriotic commemoration.

"We are forever grateful for the thousands of supporters who dedicate their time and effort to fulfilling our mission on a local level," said Karen Worcester, executive director, Wreaths Across America. "These individuals and their communities know the value of remembering the fallen, honoring those who currently serve and teaching the next generation about the sacrifices made for our freedom every day, and without their continued support, Wreaths Across America would not exist."

Those interested in volunteering for Wreaths Across America, or sponsoring a wreath for Anson Memorial Park, are invited to visit the website to learn more. National Wreaths Across America Day is a free, non-political, community event open to all people.

Please help our location lay wreaths at as many graves as possible by visiting www.wreathscrossamerica.org and click on "Menu" on the top right corner, and then enter "Leavitt Funeral Home and Anson Community Hospice." You will be able to purchase one or more wreaths and/or volunteer to participate in the wreath laying ceremony. Don't forget to click the "Invite" button to invite your friends and family to join you.

For more information, to sponsor wreaths or to sign up to volunteer, visit www.WreathsAcrossAmerica.org and select fundraising group number NC0331P. Locally you can contact Ken Caulder at Leavitt Funeral Home. The telephone number is 704-694-2524, or email ken@leavittfh.com.
