Anson High School Wrestling Team Shows Improvement

The Anson High School Wrestling Team has officially entered their 2012 season, and the coaches will be acknowledging excellence displayed each week. Head Coach, James Wall said, "We will be naming a Wrestler of the Week for both the lower and upper weights. Last weeks wrestlers of the week are Cody Hildreth and Cedarius Barrett, both who have been working extremely hard."

Last week the Anson team defeated Carson High School and lost to Independence High School in the Tri-Match at Independence.

On November 23 and 24 Anson placed ninth out of fifteen teams at the Redhawk Invitational. Anson wrestlers who placed are Jaquan Wall, second; Cody Hildreth, third; Oscar Moses, fourth; Justice Leak, fourth; and Cedarius Barrett.

On Saturday, December 1 Anson held the Cat Fight Duals. The Cats showed much improvement from their previous duals and tournament. Those named Wrestler of the Week are Vernice Rorie and Jekev Robinson. Rorie had three wins and 2 losses. Coach Wall said, "Rorie lost two very tough matches at the end. He wrestles with a lot of energy from start to finish, and he is one of the hardest working men in the wrestling room." Robinson went 3-0 throughout the duals. Wall said, "Robinson basically dominated the three matches from beginning to end." This week we have honorable mentions. They include Cedarius Barrett 5-0, Jaquan Wall 4-1, Cody Hildreth 4-1 and Justice Leak 4-1.

Everyone wrestled hard and showed lots of improvement. As a team Anson placed second (4-1) by defeating Monroe 60-24, Richmond 42-39, St Pauls 60-24 and Butler 48-33. Anson lost to Scotland 49-24.

The Anson wrestlers are definitely improving and making strides toward continued success. Congratulations to those chosen as Wrestlers of the Week and to the entire team. Let's go Cats!
