

Tony Beachum Overall Winner at Sheriff's Skeet Shoot

The Anson County Sheriff's Office's annual Youth Skeet Shoot was a big success. Over thirty youths, ages 17 and under signed up for the event that was held Saturday, October 20th at Devil's Rib Preserve in Peachland. Sheriff Tommy Allen said that this was the largest turnout in the ten year history of the event. "We had a big group of shooters and a much larger group of spectators, parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles and the general public. Our volunteers gave away 150 hotdogs will all the trimmings," Sheriff Allen said. "The skill level of these kids was astonishing. Many of them will be adult champion shooters one day."

Sheriff Allen went on to say he wanted to thank the volunteers who helped put the skeet shoot together - his staff who were there all day and the event's main sponsors: Professional Pipe, Pee Dee Electric and Allen's General Store, who made the whole thing possible. He wanted to especially thank Devil's Rib Hunting Preserve that provided their personnel and the hunting preserve all day long and donated all the skeet.

- Winners for the event were as follows:
- Ages 14 and under: Jaxon Cook first place and Michael Preslar second place
 - Ages 15 and 16: James Buccolo first place and Dalton Rodenberger second place
 - Ages 17 and 18: Chris Mullis first place and John Harrington second place
 - Overall champion was Tony Beachum

Chris Mullis won and Johnny Harrington placed second in ages 17 and 18 competition.

Women Challenged at Windows of the Heart Conference

In a release from the Anson Woman's Missionary Union: Women from Union and Anson counties attended a women's Bible conference, Windows of the Heart, Saturday, November 10 and were challenged by special guest speaker, Phyllis Elliott Elvington. Using the theme, "Keep Telling the Story," the challenge was to read and study their Bible, to serve others as though they were serving Jesus Christ as written in Matthew 25:31-46. Attendees were urged to keep telling the story of Jesus and His love, to keep telling their own story of how they came to saving faith in Jesus Christ, and to keep telling the story of Woman's Missionary Union so that mission efforts will continue to be shared and supported through giving. To help with that, Mary Neal Hill, sister to retired missionary Betsy Tribble, donated a king-sized quilt to be auctioned off. The bidding was lively, especially between Marilyn Jackson from Peachland Baptist Church and the successful bidder, Betty Simpson (pictured above with Mary Neal Hill) from Ebenezer Baptist Church in Union County whose winning bid was $300.
