Anson High and Middle School Wrestling Update

On December 5, the Anson High School wrestling team lost to Pinecrest, 75-3. Jaquan Wall was the only wrestler to win and was named wrestler of the week for he second consecutive time. The Anson Middle School Wrestling Team, currently 2-1, defeated Monroe Middle on November 19, and Parkwood Middle on December 4. They lost to Piedmont Middle on December 4, in a hard fought tri match. Both teams are striving to make improvements and finish their season strong.

On Saturday, December 15, the high school wrestlers finished 16 out of 20 at Porter Ridge High School. Jaquan Wall placed 3rd in the 170-pound weight class. James Buchanon won 3 out of 5 matches in the 138-pound weight class. The Bearcats had only five wrestlers competing in the tournament. Wrestler of the week honors go to James Buchanon who wrestled his best tournament of the season so far. Coach James Wall said, "We have areas of strength and other areas that need improvement and we will give our best, always." Let's go Cats!
